NOMINATING PETITION INFORMATION

- All petitions must be obtained from the DeKalb County Election Commission office. We prefer you come in person to obtain your petition, but if extenuating circumstances occur an agent may pick up a petition on the candidate's behalf. Also, an agent may return the petition for the candidate. However, the Candidate's Section of the petition must be completed in the Election Commission Office. (No titles may be printed with the candidate's name. Nicknames, however, are permitted. Judicial candidates must provide their Supreme Court Registration Number.)
- Each petition issued will be treated as public record. Petition information will be released to the public and media on a regular basis.
- No photocopies of the petition will be accepted. Additional copies of the petition must be obtained from the Election Commission office.
- TCA 2-5-101 states "a person's regular signature shall be accepted just as the person's legal signature would be accepted." For example, "Joe Public" shall be accepted just as "Joseph Q. Public" would be accepted. However, it is suggested that voters signing your petition sign their name as it is listed on their voter's registration card. Many signatures are very difficult to read. To help eliminate that problem, please also print the name on the appropriate line. Ditto marks cannot be used for signatures.
- Each voter must sign his/her own name. Husbands cannot sign for their wives and wives cannot sign for their husbands. Anyone who cannot sign his/her own name due to disability must have two (2) witnesses. (Example: John Doe witnesses by Sally Smith, 12 Main Street and Joe Brown, 10 Main Street.)
- Voters signing the petition must list their CORRECT RESIDENTIAL ADDRESS (not mailing address) including the city. A Post Office Box number will NOT be accepted as an address.

FILING THE NOMINATING PETITION

- All petitions must be filed before 12:00 NOON February 19, 2026 with the DeKalb County Election Office. State law requires the election office to refuse any petitions brought in after the noon deadline. A postmark does not satisfy the filing deadline, except for a delegate candidate. It is recommended the candidate or one of their agents hand deliver the petition in person. The election office staff will provide a receipt of the filed petition for the candidate's record. Any petition filed after the deadline will prevent the candidate's name from appearing on the ballot.

PETITION STATUS AND QUALIFICATION PROCESS

- Nominating petitions are verified in the order in which we receive them. You will be notified of any problems with your petition. In order to have time to correct any deficiency, it is strongly suggested you turn in your petition well in advance of the deadline.
- The members of the DeKalb County Election Commission have the legal responsibility to place only the names of candidates on the ballot who have met all the necessary requirements and qualifications. A nominating petition is part of the process along with residency, felony inquiries, and qualification checks. Individuals who have a felony conviction need to have their rights restored by a court (and application accepted by the Tennessee Division of Elections) before they can qualify, seek or hold any office in the State of Tennessee.

WITHDRAWAL PROCESS

- Individuals who wish to withdraw their nominating petitions have one week from the qualifying deadline to do so. A written request with the candidate's original signature must be filed before 12 NOON, seven (7) days after the qualifying deadline with the DeKalb County Election Commission. A fax will not be accepted. A phone call will not be accepted. The Withdrawal Deadline is 12:00 NOON February 26, 2026.

CAMPAIGN FINANCE For State and Local Candidates

Below is a brief summary of the campaign finance statutes for state and local candidates.

The purpose of this summary is to make potential candidates aware of their responsibilities under the campaign finance statutes. For more complete info please go to our website (www.tn.gov/tref), speak with your Administrator of Elections (AOE), e-mail the Registry of Election Finance (Registry) (registry.info@tn.gov) or call the Registry (615.741.7959).

Who

Any individual who becomes a candidate. A candidate is defined as an individual who:

- Makes a formal announcement of candidacy for office;
- Has qualified to seek office;
- Accepts contributions or makes expenditures to determine if one shall be a candidate(except for incidental expenditures); or
- Establishes a campaign committee to accept contributions or make expenditures to seek election.

What

Appointment of Treasurer Statement. A candidate must file an Appointment of Political Treasurer Statement with the appropriate office before they may receive contributions or make expenditures. All campaign funds must be maintained in a bank or credit union insured by the FDIC or NCUA.

Campaign Financial Disclosure Statements. Candidates must file periodic campaign financial disclosure reports detailing their campaign contributions and expenditures unless they are exempt as described below.

Exempt. A local candidate is exempt from the filing requirements if he or she is seeking an office for which the service is part-time and the compensation is less than $1,000 per month. This exemption does not apply if the candidate spends more than $1,000 seeking the office or if the office being sought is mayor or chief administrative officer.

When

Periodic campaign financial disclosure reports are due based on the date of the election(s). The Registry posts on its website (www.tn.gov/tref) the filing dates for state elections and many common local elections. Local candidates should contact their AOE for filing dates.

Where

State candidates file campaign financial disclosure reports electronically with the Registry. Local candidates file campaign financial disclosure reports on paper with their county election commission office. Candidates will receive a notice from either the Registry (via email) or county election commission before a report is due. State candidates should make sure that their email address is up to date with the Registry at all times.

Information Required on Campaign Financial Disclosure Statements

Short Form. A candidate receiving $1,000 or less and spending $1,000 or less during a reporting period may file a short form. The only financial information required on a short form is balance on hand, loan balance and obligation balance.

Long Form. A candidate who does not meet the requirements to file a short form must file a disclosure detailing their contributions, in-kind contributions, expenditures, loans and obligations (see below for details).

Contributions. Contributions are monies (including a candidate's personal funds) or things of value received for the purpose of the election of any person to public office. Non-monetary contributions such as a donation of supplies are called in-kind contributions. Anonymous contributions may not be accepted.

Contributions totaling $100 or less from a single source, up to a maximum of $2,000, during the reporting period are not required to be itemized. They may be totaled with other single source contributions totaling $100 or less and be reported as a single item. Any contributions totaling $100 or less from a single source in excess of the $2,000 maximum must be itemized. Contributions totaling more than $100 from a single source during a reporting period are required to be itemized. Each itemized contribution must list the contributor's full name, complete address, occupation, and employer. In addition, the amount, date of receipt, and election the contribution is designated for must be listed.

Expenditures. Expenditures are defined as any purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit or gift of money or anything of value made for the purpose of influencing the election of any person to public office. All expenditures must be itemized. Each expenditure must list the payee's full name and complete address along with the amount and purpose of the expenditure.

Loans. Campaign loans must be disclosed by a candidate during the reporting period that the loan is received. A loan must continue to be disclosed on future campaign financial disclosure statements until the loan is paid back in full or a statement has been filed stating the loan will not be repaid and is to be considered a contribution to the campaign.

Obligations. Goods and services received on credit which are not paid for during the reporting period received must be disclosed as an obligation by the candidate during the reporting period that the obligation is incurred. The obligation must continue to be disclosed by the candidate or committee until fully paid. (Any unpaid debts may be deemed a contribution to your campaign, which must be within contribution limits.)

Contribution Limits

There are limits on how much a person or a PAC may contribute (monetary and in-kind) to a candidate's campaign per election (primary, general and run-off are considered separate elections) and how much monies that a candidate may accept for an election from a person or PAC. The limits for 2025/2026 are as follows:

Office	Person	PAC	Total Contributions from PACs (Excluding PACs controlled by a political party*)
Statewide	$5,300	$15,400	50% of contributions
State Senate	$1,900	$30,800	$253,200
State Rep	$1,900	$15,400	$126,600
All other State and Local Candidates	$1,900	$10,100	$126,600

*A "PAC controlled by a political party" includes any PAC created, controlled, financed, and maintained by a political party organization on the national, state or local level, and caucuses of a political party established by members of either house of the General Assembly. T.C.A. § 2-10-302. As of May 9, 2025, these PACs are not subject to contribution limits; however, a PAC that is associated with a political party or a caucus but not directly established, financed, maintained or controlled by a political party or caucus remains subject to the PAC contribution limits at T.C.A. § 2-10-302(b) and (c). For a list of PACs controlled by a political party, please contact the Registry of Election Finance.

A candidate may not accept more than $50 in cash contributions from a single person per election. Candidates must collect contributor data relating to ALL contributions received.

Prohibited Uses of Campaign Funds

A candidate for an elected public office is prohibited from using any campaign funds prior to, during or after an election for the candidate's own personal use. Personal use is defined as any use of funds that would require the candidate or official to treat the use as gross income under Section 61 of the IRS Code of 1986. T.C.A. § 2-10-114(b)(1). There are other specific uses of campaign funds that are prohibited. They may be found on the Registry website in the Candidate FAQs.

Failure to File Required Reports and Violating Other Campaign Finance Statutes

The Registry has the authority to impose civil penalties of up to $10,000 for late filing or failure to file required campaign financial disclosure reports. The Registry also has the authority to impose civil penalty of up to $10,000 or 115% of the amount of all contributions made or accepted in excess of the limitations of the Act, whichever is greater.

CAMPAIGN FINANCE

FAQS

1. Who must file Campaign Financial Disclosure Statements?

PROSPECTIVE CANDIDATES. Any individual who receives contributions or makes expenditures (except for incidental expenditures) to determine if he or she will be a candidate for state or local public office is required to report to the appropriate agency. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(3)

ANNOUNCED CANDIDATES. Any individual who has made a formal announcement of his or her candidacy for a state or local elected public office or who has formally qualified to seek election to public office in a primary or general election in Tennessee is required to report to the appropriate agency. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(3)

CANDIDATES EXEMPTED. A local candidate may be exempt from the Campaign Financial Disclosure Act's requirements if he or she is seeking a public office for which the service is part-time and for which the compensation is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) per month. This exemption does not apply if the public office being sought is that of a chief administrative officer or if the candidate spends more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) seeking election to the public office. T.C.A. § 2-10-101(b)

2. Where must candidates file reports?

CANDIDATES FOR STATE PUBLIC OFFICE. Candidates and single-candidate political campaign committees involved in elections for state public offices (Governor, member of the General Assembly, delegate to a Tennessee Constitutional Convention, District Attorney General, District Public Defender, Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, Judge of the Court of Appeals, Supreme Court Justice, Chancellor, Circuit Court Judge, Criminal Court Judge and Probate Court Judge) must file all required reports with the Registry of Election Finance, 404 James Robertson Parkway, Suite 104, Nashville, TN 37243-1360. T.C.A. § 2-10-105(a)

CANDIDATES FOR LOCAL PUBLIC OFFICE. Candidates or single-candidate political campaign committees involved in elections for local public offices (all offices not listed above as state public offices) must file all required reports with the election commission of the county or counties where the election will be held. T.C.A. § 2-10-105(b)

3. What must a candidate do to begin a campaign operation?

POLITICAL CAMPAIGN TREASURERS. Before any monies can be received or spent, (except for incidental expenditures made by an individual to determine whether to be a candidate), each candidate must certify the name and address of its political treasurer to the Registry of Election Finance for a state election and to the county election commission for a local election. This is accomplished by completing and filing an appointment of political treasurer statement. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(3) and T.C.A. § 2-10-105(4)(e)(1)

A candidate may appoint himself or herself as the political treasurer for a campaign. If a candidate appoints another person to act as political treasurer, the candidate must co-sign all reports required to be filed under the Campaign Financial Disclosure Act. T.C.A. § 2-10-105(4)(e)(1)

CAMPAIGN BANK ACCOUNT. A candidate must open and maintain a separate bank account into which all campaign contributions are to be deposited. Additionally, all expenditures from campaign funds must be expended from this bank account. Rule 0530-1-1-.01(1), Rule 0530-1-1-.02(1) and Rule 0530-1-1-.02(4)

If a person is a candidate for more than one public office, the candidate must maintain separate campaign bank accounts for each office sought. Rule 0530-1-3-.02(3)(a)

4. How long is an appointment of treasurer statement effective?

CANDIDATES - PRIMARY, GENERAL ELECTIONS: A political treasurer appointed by a candidate or single-candidate political campaign committee may serve for both the primary and general elections. After the last election in which that candidate or committee is involved in that election year, monies shall not be received or spent for a future election until the candidate or committee has formally appointed a political treasurer for the future election year and filed a report of that appointment with the Registry of Election Finance or the appropriate county election commission. (The new appointment must be filed, even if the treasurer is the same individual who served in that capacity in the candidate's previous election.) T.C.A. § 2-10-105(g)

CHANGE OF TREASURERS. Candidates must notify the Registry or the appropriate county election commission of any changes in the office of political treasurer. An appointment of political treasurer statement must be completed and filed for the individual who replaces the previous treasurer.

5. What information must be reported in a campaign financial disclosure statement?

CONTRIBUTIONS. A reportable contribution is defined by the law as being "any advance, conveyance, deposit, distribution, transfer of funds, loan, loan guaranty, personal funds of a candidate, payment, gift, or subscription, of money or like thing of value, and any contract, agreement, promise or other obligation. . . .made for the purpose of influencing a measure or nomination for election or the election of any person for public office." Additionally, any of these items given to an officeholder "for the purpose of defraying any expenses. . . .incurred in connection with the performance of the officeholder's duties, responsibilities, or constituent services" are reportable as contributions. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(4)

IN-KIND CONTRIBUTIONS. In-kind contributions are goods or services provided to a candidate without charge (such as the use of equipment or advertisement materials at no cost to the candidate) and must be listed separately on the campaign financial disclosure statement from other campaign contributions. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(c)(1) and Rule 0530-1-1-.03(6)

An in-kind contribution is considered to be made and is reportable during the period in which the contribution is made or performed, not when the cost of the contribution is billed or paid. The amount for an in-kind contribution which should be reported by a candidate should be the fair market value for such goods or services provided. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(d)

If the actual cost of an in-kind contribution is not known at the time when it is reportable, an estimate of the cost shall be reported during the period that the contribution is made or performed, and the disclosure report shall indicate that the amount reported is estimated. If the actual cost of the in-kind contribution as indicated on the bill for the goods or services is different than the amount reported, the candidate shall adjust the amount reported on a later disclosure statement covering the period in which payment for the in-kind contribution is made. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(d)

EXPENDITURES. A reportable expenditure is defined by statute as "a purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit or gift of money or anything of value made for the purpose of influencing a measure or the nomination for election or election of any person to public office." T.C.A. § 2-10-102(6)(A)

LOANS. A campaign loan must be disclosed by a candidate during the reporting period that the loan is made. A loan must continue to be disclosed on future campaign financial disclosure statements until the loan is paid back in full or a statement has been filed with the appropriate campaign financial disclosure statement by the candidate stating that the loan will not be repaid and is to be considered a contribution to the campaign. Rule 0530-1-1-.06(1) and Rule 0530-1-1-.06(2)

OBLIGATIONS. Goods and services received on credit which are not paid for during the reporting period received must be disclosed as an obligation by the candidate during the reporting period that the obligation is incurred. This obligation must continue to be disclosed by the candidate or committee on campaign financial disclosure statements until fully paid. Payments on the obligation shall be disclosed as expenditures by the candidate on the appropriate campaign financial disclosure statement(s). Rule 0530-1-1-.10(1)

6. What details are required in campaign financial disclosure statements?

Short Form. Candidates are exempt from filing a detailed disclosure statement if neither contribution received nor expenditures made during a reporting period for which a statement is submitted exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000). The candidate must report the balance of contributions on hand, outstanding loans and outstanding obligations. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(1)

Detailed Disclosure. A candidate which has over one thousand dollars ($1,000) in contributions and/or expenditures must complete a detailed disclosure and list contributions, expenditures, loans and obligations as described below. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(2)(A)(i)

Contributions. Contributions totaling one hundred dollars ($100) or less from a single source during the reporting period may be totaled and reported as a single item. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(2)(A)(i)

Candidates are required to list the full name, complete address, amount, date of receipt of contribution, and the election the contribution is designated for, for each person or organization who contributes a total of more than one hundred dollars ($100) during a reporting period. In addition, if this contribution is from an individual, you must also list the occupation and employer of the contributor. A candidate that makes a "best effort" to obtain the address, occupation and employer for a contribution is considered to be in compliance with the requirement. "Best Effort" would include requesting the information on an invitation and stating that the information is required by state law for contributions over $100 or requesting the information in a letter sent by first class postage and stating that the information is required by state law for contributions over $100. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(A)(i)

For example, a person who contributes fifty dollars ($50) one day, fifty dollars ($50) the following day and one dollar ($1) the next day would have to be specifically listed on the campaign financial disclosure statement as having contributed one hundred one dollars ($101), if all those monies were contributed during one reporting period. Likewise, a person who buys five (5) tickets to a campaign fundraiser at twenty-five dollars ($25) each would have to be specifically listed on the campaign financial disclosure statement as having contributed one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125). A contributor may designate his/her contribution to a candidate by indicating in writing the specific election to which the contribution is intended to apply.

Expenditures. Expenditures totaling one hundred dollars ($100) or less to a single payee during the reporting period are not required to be itemized. These expenditures may be broken down and totaled by general categories (such as gas, food, etc.). For example, purchases of twenty-five dollars ($25) of gas at five different service stations would be shown as "Gas --- $125". T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(B)

The law requires candidates to list the full name, complete address, amount and detailed purpose for each person or organization to whom a total of more than one hundred dollars ($100) was paid during a reporting period. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(B)

When a purchase is made with a credit card, the purchase must be disclosed as a payment to the vendor (not the credit card company). For example, if printing is purchased from ABC Printing with a credit card, the payee must be listed as ABC Printing. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(B)

Purchases of goods and services must be disclosed as a purchase from the actual vendor and not as a purchase from a third party who is reimbursed for the purchase. For example, if a campaign worker goes to ABC Printing and pays for printing and is then reimbursed by the campaign for the printing, the disclosure must list ABC Printing as the vendor and not the campaign worker. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(B)

When listing the purpose of an expenditure, the words "reimbursement", "credit card purchase", "other" and "campaign expenditure" may not be used as the purpose. The purpose must be detailed enough to show that the expenditure was an allowable expenditure. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(B)

Loans. Itemized information must be provided for all loans for more than one hundred dollars ($100) from one creditor during a reporting period. This information includes the full name and address of each creditor, and the date that the loan was made must be provided. In addition, any endorsers or guarantors for a loan must be listed by full name and address and the amount of the loan which is guaranteed by that person must be disclosed. The outstanding loan balance at the beginning of the reporting period, any additional loans received during that period, any loan payments made during the period and the outstanding loan balance at the end of the reporting period must also be disclosed. T.C.A. § 2-10-107(a)(2)(A)(i)

Obligations. All obligations owed at the end of a reporting period for more than one hundred dollars ($100) to one creditor must be itemized. The itemized information includes the full name and address of the creditor. In addition, the outstanding obligations' balance at the beginning of the reporting period, any additional obligations' incurred during the period, any payments made to the creditor during the period and the outstanding obligations balance at the end of the reporting period must be disclosed.

11. Are candidates required to file a report during the final days of an election?

Interim Report. An interim report is required for major contributions during the final days before an election. Such a report also is due if a candidate or single-candidate committee for local public office or single-measure committee involved in a local referendum receives a contribution or loan of more than twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500) during that final campaign period. The following are NOT campaign contributions and are not required to be reported:

- b. Publicity. Not included within the meaning of contribution is any news story, commentary or editorial distributed through the facilities of any broadcasting station, newspaper, magazine or other periodical publication, unless such facilities are owned wholly or in part or controlled by a political party, political committee or candidate. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(4)(B)
- c. Voter Registration Efforts. Any nonpartisan activity designed to encourage individuals to vote or to register to vote is not considered a campaign contribution. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(4)(C)
- d. Internal Communications. Not included within the meaning of contribution is any written, oral or electronically transmitted communication by any membership organization or corporation to its members or stockholders, if such membership organization or corporation is not organized primarily for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election or election of any person to public office. However, if the organization or corporation simply finances the dissemination, distribution or republication in whole or in part of campaign materials prepared by the candidate or candidate's committee, then such financing shall be considered a campaign contribution. 13. Are there any dollar limitations on the amount of campaign contributions that a candidate may accept from a person or a PAC?

Pursuant to the Campaign Contribution Limits Act of 1995, T.C.A. 2-10-301, et seq., there are limits on how much monies that a person or a PAC may contribute to a candidate's campaign per election and how much monies that a candidate may accept for an election from a person or PAC. Those dollar limitations are based on the office sought by the candidate. Those limits are as follows:

Office	Person	PAC	Total Contributions from PACs Excluding Party PACs	Total Contributions from Party PACs
Statewide	$4,900	$15,400	50% of contributions	$477,300
State Senate	$1,900	$30,800	$307,000	$76,300
State Rep	$1,900	$15,400	$153,500	$38,300
Local Candidate	$1,900	$10,100	$153,500	$38,300

- a. Political Party PACs include those committees controlled by a political party on the national, state or local level and caucuses of a political party established by members of either house of the General Assembly. T.C.A. § 2-10-302
- b. Other State Offices includes Criminal Court Judges, Circuit Court Judges, Chancellors, Probate Court Judges, District Attorney Generals and Public Defenders. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(13)

For purposes of dollar limitations, a primary election, general election, run-off election or special election are each considered a separate election with separate contribution limits. For example, a candidate for state senate in the August primary election could accept $1,600 from John Doe, and if the candidate also runs in the general election, he/she could accept another $1,600 from John Doe for the general election.

14. What is included as a contribution for purposes of the contribution limitations?

Campaign contributions made by cash or a written instrument, such as a check, would be subject to the contribution limitations of the law, as well as in-kind contributions. Loans may also be considered a campaign contribution and subject to the contribution limits (see below and question 15.)

A person who endorses or guarantees a candidate's campaign loan shall be considered to have made a contribution, subject to the contribution limitations, to the candidate's campaign in the amount of the endorsement or guaranty. Where the portion of the loan for which the endorser or guarantor is liable is not specified in the written agreement, each endorser or guarantor shall be considered to have made a contribution in that proportion of the unpaid balance that each endorser or guarantor bears to the total number of endorsers or guarantors.

A person making a loan to a candidate from their personal monies shall be considered to have made a contribution, subject to the contribution limitations, in the amount of the outstanding loan. T.C.A. § 2-10-102(4)

15. What is not included as a contribution for purposes of the contribution limitations?

The limitations do not apply to the retention or transfer of funds by a candidate to his/her own campaign from surplus funds from another campaign of the candidate. (Please remember that a candidate shall not transfer funds from a local campaign account to a legislative or gubernatorial campaign account.)

The limitations do not apply to a contribution, including a loan, made by a candidate to his/her own campaign.

A loan obtained by a candidate from a financial institution is not subject to the dollar limitations if the loan meets the following criteria: T.C.A. § 2-10-304

- a. Is made in the ordinary course of business;
- b. Is made on a basis reasonably designated to assure repayment, evidenced by a written instrument and subject to a payment due date or amortization schedule; and

- c. Bears the usual and customary interest rate of the lending institution.

16. What are the restrictions on the accepting of campaign contributions?

Cash Contributions. No person may make cash contributions to any candidate, in the aggregate that exceeds $50.00 per election. PACs may not make cash contributions to candidates. T.C.A. § 2-10-311(a), T.C.A. § 2-10-311(b) and T.C.A. § 2-10-311(c)

Blackout Periods. From the convening of the General Assembly in organizational session through the earlier of June 1 or the last day of regular session in odd numbered years and from the convening of regular legislative session to the earlier of May 15 or the conclusion of annual session in even numbered years and from the convening of an extraordinary session through the conclusion of extraordinary session, the governor or a legislator may not have a fundraiser or solicit or accept contributions for the governor or legislator's benefit or for the benefit of another legislative candidate or gubernatorial candidate, a political party legislative caucus PAC or any member of a political party legislative caucus PAC. T.C.A. § 2-10-310(a)(1)

Additionally, from the convening of the General Assembly in organizational session through the earlier of June 1 or the last day of regular session in odd numbered years and from the convening of regular legislative session to the earlier of May 15 or the conclusion of annual session in even numbered years and from the convening of an extraordinary session through the conclusion of extraordinary session, a political party PAC is prohibited from conducting a fundraiser, soliciting or accepting campaign contributions for the benefit of a legislative candidate, gubernatorial candidate, a caucus or any caucus member. T.C.A. § 2-10-310(b)

An employer of a lobbyist or a PAC controlled by an employer of a lobbyist is prohibited from making a campaign contribution to a gubernatorial or legislative candidate during regular or extraordinary legislative session (this restriction is found in the lobbying statutes). T.C.A. § 3-6-304

During the nine (9) day period prior to any election day, a PAC is prohibited from making a campaign contribution to a candidate for state or local public office, unless the committee is a political party PAC. T.C.A. § 2-10-117

17. Are corporate campaign contributions allowed?

Yes, beginning on June 1, 2011, corporate contributions are allowed to be made to candidates and PACs in Tennessee. Corporations making campaign contributions totaling over $1,000 in the aggregate to candidates in a calendar quarter must register as a PAC and file campaign financial disclosure reports.

18. Can a candidate use funds from a previous election for a subsequent election?

All state and local candidates may transfer unexpended campaign funds to a future campaign for the same office by that candidate. State candidates may transfer any excess campaign funds to any future state or local campaign that the candidate establishes. Local candidates may transfer excess campaign funds only to future local campaigns that the candidate establishes. T.C.A. § 2-10-114

19. Are there any restrictions on the use of campaign contributions by candidates?

GENERALLY. A candidate for an elected public office is prohibited from using any campaign funds prior to, during or after an election for the candidate's own personal use. Personal use is defined as any use of funds that would require the candidate or official to treat the use as gross income under Section 61 of the IRS Code of 1986. T.C.A. § 2-10-114(b)(1)

Whether an expenditure of campaign funds by a candidate is made for a political purpose depends upon all the facts and circumstances surrounding the expenditure. An activity engaged in between elections by a candidate which is directly related to and supports the selection, nomination or election of that individual to public office is considered political activity. An expense which would be incurred by an individual regardless of that person's candidacy for public office is considered an expenditure for a nonpolitical purpose, except as allowed for the expenditure of surplus contributions.

ALLOWABLE USES. A candidate with surplus campaign funds from an election shall allocate unexpended funds to one (1) or more of the following:

- a. The funds may be retained or transferred to any campaign fund pursuant to Tennessee's reporting requirements, except a candidate for local office shall not transfer surplus funds from such an account to a campaign account for the General Assembly or governor. T.C.A. § 2-10-114(a)(1)
- b. The funds may be returned to any or all the candidate's contributors as set forth in a formula or plan specified in the candidate's disclosure of the allocation. T.C.A. § 2-10-114(a)(2)

- e. The funds may be distributed to any organization as described in 26 U.S.C. 170(c). (Examples - church, schools, school booster clubs, veteran's organizations.) T.C.A. § 2-10-114(a)(5)
- f. The monies may be distributed to any organization which has received a determination of exemption from federal income taxation pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of 26 U.S.C. 501(c), if such organization is currently operating under such exemption. (Section 501(c)(3) includes any non-profit organization that operates exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, public safety testing, literacy, or educational purposes, or to foster national or amateur sport competition, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals. Section 501(c)(4) covers any non-profit civic organization operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare and includes certain local employee associations when the associations' net earnings are devoted to charitable, educational or recreational purposes.) T.C.A. § 2-10-114(a)(6)
- g. The funds may be used to defray any ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the office of the officeholder. Such expenses may include, but are not limited to the cost of advertisement, membership fees, and donations to community causes. T.C.A. § 2-10-114(a)(7)
- h. The funds may be distributed to any institution of public or private education in the state for the purpose of supplementing the funds of an existing scholarship trust or program. Please remember that state law requires that the organization to which you are making a contribution must have an up-to-date exemption from the Internal Revenue Service, in order for your contribution to be proper under this provision. T.C.A. § 2-10-114(a)(8)

PROHIBITED USES. The following expenditures from campaign funds are specifically prohibited:

- a. Any residential or household items, supplies or expenditures, including mortgage, rent or utility payments for any part of any personal residence of a candidate or officeholder or a member of the candidate's or officeholder's family. T.C.A. § 2-10-114(b)(2)(A)

CLASS ONE (1) OFFENSES. The Registry may impose class one (1) civil penalties of twenty-five dollars ($25) a day up to a maximum of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) for the late filing of any campaign financial disclosure report required to be filed either with the Registry or the county election commission. The law sets specific procedures that must be followed whenever the Registry or a county election commission discovers that a required report has not been filed. T.C.A. § 2-10-110(a)(1)

The Registry staff or the county election commission, whichever office should have received a required campaign financial disclosure statement, must notify the candidate or committee by personal service or by return receipt requested mail that the report has not been received and that civil penalties of twenty-five dollars ($25) a day will begin to accrue five (5) days after receipt of the notice until the report is filed or for thirty (30) days, whichever occurs first. T.C.A. § 2-10-110(a)(1)(A) and T.C.A. § 2-10-110(a)(1)(B)

A candidate that files the required report within that five-day grace period will not be subject to civil penalties.

CLASS TWO (2) OFFENSES. The Registry also has the authority to impose civil penalties of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or fifteen percent (15%) of the amount in controversy, whichever is greater for a class two (2) offense involving both state and local elections. A class two offense is the failure to file a report within thirty-five (35) days of service of notice of a delinquent report or any other violation of the Campaign Financial Disclosure Act. T.C.A. § 2-10-110(a)(2)

The law requires the Registry staff to send an assessment letter to the candidate before any class two (2) civil penalties are imposed by the Registry, advising the candidate or committee of the factual basis of the violation, the maximum penalty and the date that a response must be filed. T.C.A. § 2-10-110(a)(2)

VIOLATIONS OF THE CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS ACT OF 1995. The Registry is empowered to impose a maximum civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of the amount of all contributions made or accepted in excess of the limitations of the Act, whichever is greater. T.C.A. § 2-10-308(a)

A campaign contribution made or accepted in excess of the limitations of this Act shall not be a violation if the candidate refunds or returns the contribution to the person making the contribution within sixty (60) days of its receipt. T.C.A. § 2-10-307(b)

CONTESTED PENALTIES. To appeal any penalty imposed by the Registry, a candidate or committee must file a petition with the Registry within thirty (30) days after the date that the order is issued. An assessment order issued by the Registry becomes final and cannot be appealed thirty (30) days after it has been issued. T.C.A. § 2-10-308(c), T.C.A. § 2-10-308(d), Rule 0530-1-1-.12(3) and Rule 0530-1-1-.12(4)

26. If a candidate fails to file a disclosure statement, may that individual qualify as a candidate in future state or local elections?

A candidate in a state or local election who fails to file a required disclosure statement is ineligible to qualify as a candidate in any future state or local elections until the report is properly filed with the Registry and/or the local county election commission. T.C.A. § 2-10-110(d)

27. What happens if a candidate fails to pay an assessed civil penalty after an assessment order becomes final?

If a candidate does not pay assessed civil penalties within thirty (30) days of an assessment order becoming final or by the qualifying deadline for election, whichever is earlier, the candidate shall be ineligible to qualify as a candidate in any upcoming elections until the assessed penalties and related costs are paid. T.C.A. § 2-10-110(c)(2)

28. How does the Registry of Election Finance begin an investigation?

ON ITS OWN INITIATIVE. The Registry of Election Finance may, on its own initiative, conduct an investigation whenever it believes that a violation of the Campaign Financial Disclosure Act may have occurred. If the Registry investigates the records of any selected candidate, it may also investigate the records of all other candidates running for the same office in the same district or other appropriate geographic area. The Registry has the authority to hold hearings, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and compel the production of books, correspondence, papers and other records. T.C.A. § 2-10-206(a)(7) and T.C.A. § 2-10-213(a)(2)

UPON SWORN COMPLAINTS. An investigation also may be based on a sworn complaint. A registered voter of Tennessee may file a sworn complaint alleging that a statement filed regarding an election for which that voter was registered to vote does not conform to the law, that a statement filed is not accurate or that a person has failed to file a statement required by law. Sworn complaints regarding candidates or single-candidate political campaign committees for state public office should be filed with the Registry. Sworn complaints regarding elections for local public office should be filed with the district attorney general in the judicial district in which the voter resides. T.C.A. § 2-10-108

29. What guidelines will the Registry of Election Finance provide to candidates and political campaign committees regarding the Campaign Financial Disclosure Law?

The Registry of Election Finance may issue written advisory opinions when questions arise about the Campaign Financial Disclosure Act and its requirements. Anyone wishing to receive guidance on his or her own campaign finance activities should contact the Registry prior to undertaking the questioned activity. The Registry will issue written advisory opinions to individuals based on written requests describing specific facts and circumstances. The Registry will issue opinions only as to prospective activities. A candidate may rely upon an advisory opinion without threat of sanction with respect to the particular issues addressed if the candidate conforms his or her conduct to the requirements of the advisory opinion. T.C.A. § 2-10-207(3)

INTERIM CAMPAIGN FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

For Candidates and Political Campaign Committees (PACs)
Revised October 2025

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

This form must be used by candidates and all political campaign committees to report major contributions, loans, expenditures, and/or obligations during the final days of a campaign, as required by T.C.A. § 2-10-105(h). Such contributions, loans, expenditures, and/or obligations must be reported if they are received/incurred during the period beginning at midnight of the 10th day prior to any election in which the candidates or committees are involved and extending through midnight of such election day.

Each candidate and each political campaign committee must disclose the full name and address of each person or other political campaign committee from whom the filer received and accepted a contribution, loan, or transfer of funds and the date of receipt of such contribution, loan, or transfer of funds which, in the aggregate, equals or exceeds the following: for a candidate/committee participating in the election of a candidate for any statewide office, five thousand dollars ($5,000); for a candidate/committee participating in the election of a candidate for any other state or local public office, three thousand dollars ($3,000). Such contributions or loans must be reflected on any subsequent campaign financial disclosure statement required by law.

If more than one contribution, loan, and/or transfer of funds is received from a single source, which in the aggregate exceed the applicable threshold, all such contributions must be reported on the Interim Report according to the date on which the applicable threshold is met and/or exceeded, as well as on any date within the reporting period on which an additional contribution, if any, from the same source is received.

Further, each candidate and each political campaign committee must disclose the full name and address of each person or recipient entity who was paid or to whom an obligation is owed which equals or exceeds the following: for a candidate/committee participating in the election of a candidate for any statewide office, five thousand dollars ($5,000); for a candidate/committee participating in the election of a candidate for any other state or local public office, three thousand dollars ($3,000). Such expenditures or obligations must be reflected on any subsequent campaign financial disclosure statement required by law.

Expenditures are to be reported based on individual transactions between the filer and a single vendor which exceeds the applicable threshold. However, invoices and/or payments must not be artificially split into multiple obligations and/or payments for purposes of avoiding reporting requirements. Any such attempt to avoid the established reporting requirements may be considered by the Registry of Election Finance as a Class 2 Offense, as defined by Tenn. Code Ann. 2-10-114, and be subject to the assessment of civil penalties.

Based upon a close review of the entirety of Tennessee's campaign finance statutes and the stated legislative purpose of Public Chapter 1087 (2022) to enhance transparency through Interim Reporting of contributions and expenditures made shortly before an election to influence that election, the Registry's Staff are of the opinion that if a political action committee receives a contribution during the interim reporting period that is unrelated to any pending election for public office, then this contribution does not need to be reported on the Interim Report. Likewise, if the committee makes an expenditure during the interim reporting period that is not specifically related to any pending election for public office, then this expenditure does not need to be reported on the interim report. Of course, such contributions and expenditures must be reported on the campaign financial disclosure statement next filed with the Registry.

This report must be filed with the Registry of Election Finance or the county election commission, whichever is required by law, by the end of the next business day following the day on which the contribution or expenditure to be reported is received or made. If such time falls other than during regular working hours, the report shall be filed after the opening of the office of the Registry or election commission on the next working day. These reports must be filed on a rolling basis.

Campaign financial disclosure statements must be received by the Registry or the appropriate county election commission office(s) by the end of the next business day following the day on which the contribution or expenditure to be reported is received or made to be considered timely filed. These reports must be filed on a rolling basis. A postmark date has no effect on a report's timeliness except when the report is mailed by registered or certified mail. Statements mailed in this matter are considered filed on the date of the postmark.

III. Failure To File Timely Reports

Failure to file reports timely or to file accurate reports may result in the assessment of civil penalties. For a candidate, the candidate is personally liable for payment of the assessed civil penalties and campaign funds cannot be used to pay civil penalties. Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-10-114. For a PAC, the appointed Treasurer is PERSONALLY LIABLE for payment of the assessed penalties. Tenn. Code Ann. 2-10-110. Effective July 1, 2022, any person who directly controlled expenditures and any candidate, or candidates, named as either a treasurer or officer of a PAC, or who constructively controlled or directed any PAC, during the time an offense occurred, will also be PERSONALLY LIABLE for payment of the assessed civil penalties. Further, effective July 1, 2022, any civil penalty assessed based upon a Class 2 offense cannot be paid using PAC funds.

Reports will be returned if they are not complete, do not contain the required signatures, are mathematically inaccurate, or if the appropriate form was not filed.

FISHBOWLS

- An individual may only make cash contributions to a candidate of up to $50 per election. This would include any contributions placed in a "fishbowl".
- Candidates must account for all contributions received; they are not allowed to accept anonymous campaign contributions (AG Opinion 97-065). Contributions placed in a "fishbowl" are anonymous unless records are kept.
- In order to comply with the restrictions of the campaign financial disclosure law, candidates must be able to identify the source of each contribution received. If a candidate can not account for each contribution received, they will not be able to determine if:
 - An individual has contributed more than $50 in cash for an election.
 - An individual has exceeded the $1,900 per election contribution limit.
- There are several methods that a candidate may use to keep records at a "fishbowl" event. These methods would include:
 - Have a campaign worker(s) stay with the "fishbowl" and take names and addresses as contributions are placed in the "fishbowl" (remember that occupation and employer must be obtained for any contributions that must be itemized).
 - Have each contributor complete a card with the appropriate information and have it placed in the "fishbowl" at the same time the contribution is made.
 - Have envelopes printed with blanks for the required information. Each contributor may place their contribution in the envelope, provide the required information and then drop it into the "fishbowl".

Highlights of T. C. A. § 2-19-120
Commonly Referred to as the "Disclaimer Law"

A. What does the Disclaimer Law require?

1. T.C.A. § 2-19-120 requires that a "disclaimer," i.e., a statement, which identifies who paid for a communication and whether the communication is authorized by the candidate, appear and be presented in a clear and conspicuous manner within a communication expressly advocating the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate, or soliciting contributions.
2. The disclaimer does not have to appear on the front face of the communication, unless the communication only contains a front face, for example, billboards.
3. The specifics of the information required in the disclaimer can be found at T.C.A. § 2-19-120(a)(1), (2), (3) and (4).

B. To whom does it apply? Candidates

A. § 2-10-102(3) provides that "Candidate" means an individual who has made a formal announcement of candidacy or who is qualified under the law of this state to seek nomination for election or elections to public office, or has received contributions or made expenditures except for incidental expenditures to determine if one shall be a candidate, or has given consent for a campaign committee to receive contributions or make expenditures with a view to bringing about the individual's nomination for election or election to state public office.

C. When does the statute apply? Whenever any person:

1. Makes an expenditure to finance a communication which expressly advocates the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate, or
2. Solicits any contribution, through any broadcasting station, newspaper, magazine, outdoor advertising facility, poster, yard sign, direct mailing or any other form of general public political advertising.
3. Exceptions:
 - a. The requirements of this section do not apply to bumper stickers, pins, buttons, pens, novelties, and similar small items upon which the disclaimer cannot be conveniently printed.

ABSENTEE VOTING

1. What is absentee voting?

Absentee voting is a voting method that involves voting on a day earlier than the actual election day. Tennessee has two forms of absentee voting:

1. Absentee in person, which is better known as early voting, and
2. Absentee by mail, which is commonly called by-mail voting.

2. Who may apply to vote absentee by mail?

To vote by mail, a registered voter must fall under one of the following categories:

- You are sixty (60) years of age or older.
- You will be outside the county where you are registered during the early voting period and all day on Election Day.
- You are hospitalized, ill or physically disabled and unable to appear at your polling place to vote
- You are the caretaker of a person who is hospitalized, ill, or disabled person
- You or your spouse are a full-time student in an accredited college or university outside the county where you are registered.
- You reside in a nursing home, assisted living facility or home for the aged outside your county of residence.
- You are a candidate for office in the election.
- You are observing a religious holiday that prevents you from voting in person during the early voting period and on Election Day.
- You serve as an Election Day official or as a member or employee of the election commission.
- You will be unable to vote in-person due to jury duty.
- You have a physical disability and an inaccessible polling place.
- You or your spouse possess a valid commercial drivers license (CDL) or Transportation Worker Identification Credential (TWIC) card and you will be working outside the state or county of registration during the open hours of early voting and Election Day and have no specific out-of-county or out-of-state address to which mail may be sent or received during such time.
- You are a member of the military or are an overseas citizen.
- You are on the permanent absentee list.

NOTE: If you reside in a licensed nursing home, assisted living facility, home for the aged, or an independent living facility on the same property as a licensed nursing home, assisted living facility, or home for the aged inside your county of residence, you may not vote absentee by-mail. Election officials will come to the facility to vote eligible residents, or you may vote during early voting or on Election Day.
